Those liability provisions will apply equally to your Contracting Party. For the avoidance of doubt, there shall be no cumulative nor joint liability between Unify and your Contracting Party.

In this case, Unify or your Contracting Party will provide You with thirty (30) day notice by sending an email to the Customer Contact, and, at Unify's discretion, also in other suitable forms. If you continue to use the Unify Cloud Service after the change becomes effective, You are deemed to have accepted the changed terms. If You do not want to accept the changed terms, You may terminate your subscription to the Unify Cloud Service with effect as of the date the change to the terms of the TOSP becomes effective, subject to a prior ten (10) day written notice from the date the change became effective. b) The following Availability Credits refer to the Service Packages and Package options described in more detail in Product and Service Description (PSD) , which is provided by your Contracting Party, and they will be applied to achieved Availability Levels:

Achieved Availability Level	Availability Credit per Service Package
	ENTERPRISE ENTERPRISE V,	PROFESSIONAL PROFESSIONAL V	TEAM TEAM V
< 99.9 % but > 99.5%	2.5%	-	-
< 99.5% but > 99.0%	5%	2.5%	-
< 99.0% but > 98.5%	7.5%	5%	2.5%
< 98.5% but > 98.0%	10%	7.5%	5%
< 98.0% but > 97.5%	12.5%	10%	7.5%
< 97.5% but > 97.0%	15%	12.5%	10%
< 97.0% but > 96.5%	17.5%	15%	12.5%
< 96.5% but > 96.0%	20%	17.5%	15%
< 96.0% but > 95.5%	22.5%	20%	17.5%
< 95.5% but > 95.0%	25%	22.5%	20%
< 95.0% but > 90.0%	50%	25%	22.5%
< 90.0%	100%	50%	25%

For Package Options, the SLA credits for “ENTERPRISE” apply.

Calculation:

- Availability Credits refer to the invoice of the billing period which is subject to the claim.
- Credited Amount is calculated by multiplying the Availability Credits with the respective invoice amounts for each Service Package and Package Options and taking the sum over these products.
- The Achieved Availability Level is calculated as follows: the difference between (a) the total number of minutes of the Contracted Month less (b) the total number of minutes of the Qualified Downtime, divided by (c) the total number of minutes of the Contracted Month.
- The Qualified Downtime is calculated as follows: Verified Downtime less (a) the total number of minutes of Scheduled Maintenance and Emergency Maintenance of the Contracted Month and (b) the total number of minutes of Availability Exceptions, as defined above.

Example for the calculation of Availability Credit:

- Assumptions:
 - Billing period: May 12 to June 11
 - Invoiced amount for that month: 300 EUR for Unify Cloud Service Users assigned to the ENTERPRISE Service Package, 200 EUR / PROFESSIONAL, 100 EUR / TEAM, and 100 EUR for Package Options (or USD or other invoice currency)
 - 300 minutes of Qualified Downtime in that billing period (31 days).
 - Total number of minutes in the Contracted Month = 31days x 24h x 60mins = 44,640 minutes.
- Achieved Availability Level = $(44,640 - 300) / 44,640 = 99.32\%$.
- The resulting Availability Credits are 5% for Unify Cloud Service Users assigned to ENTERPRISE Service Package, 2.5% / PROFESSIONAL, 0% / TEAM, and 5% for Package Options.
- The Credited Amount calculates as this: 5% of 300 EUR for Unify Cloud Service Users assigned to the ENTERPRISE Service Package, plus 2.5% of 200 EUR /PROFESSIONAL, plus 0% of 100 EUR / TEAM + 5% x 100 EUR for Package Options = 25 EUR (or USD or other invoice currency).

c) The Availability Credit will be applied by your Contracting Party to the invoice following Unify's response to your availability credit claim. The availability credit cannot exceed one hundred percent (100%) of the invoiced amount, nor can availability credits be accumulated over several Contracted Months. There is no refund of Availability Credits for the last two (2) months of the subscription in case the subscription is not renewed.

d) Eligibility:

In order to be eligible for Availability Credits, you must not be

- late with your monthly payments,
- in violation of the Acceptable Use Policy (AUP)
- otherwise in material breach of the Terms of Service Production (TOSP)

e) Availability Credits will only be awarded if you have a paid-for subscription to a Unify Cloud Service. Availability credits are not available if you are subscribed to a Free service package, trial subscription, or any other unpaid for test or evaluation subscription.

If the Response Time for a service request exceeds the Service Hour of the UHD, the measuring of the Response Time will continue once the subsequent Service Hour period of the UHD begins. The measuring ends once the service request has been responded to, which can include email notification of the submitting Unify Cloud Service User.

3.6 Priority Levels will be defined by Unify when the Unify Cloud Service User places the service request. Unify reserves the right to re-set the Priority Level as the service request is handled per the definitions below as part of the response to the service request, giving reasons.

“Priority Level 1” means Incidents where Unify Cloud Core Services in its entirety, as it is described in the TOSP and in particular in the Product and Service Description (PSD) , is not available to all of your Unify Cloud Services Users.

“Priority Level 2” means Incidents where relevant parts or functionalities of Unify Cloud Services, such as the search function, storage access, content sharing, etc., as they are described in the TOSP and in particular in the Product and Service Description (PSD) are not available.

“Priority Level 3” means incidents that are not assigned to priority levels 1 and 2.

There is not credit if the objectives for the Response Time and the provision of a Resolution are not met.
